

A Proposal for Economic Strengthening of Farmer Families through an Integrative Approach for Youth Development and Sustainable Sanitation

Section 1: General Information
Summary	Cargill Tropical Palm and Save the Children have a shared vision to improve the lives of palm oil farmers and their communities around the world. The object of the project linked wellbeing and access to job opportunities through access to basic rights such access to sanitation, in particular to Improve access to and use of appropriate WASH facilities and infrastructure and behaviour/practices among children, adolescent/youth, farmers, families, and wider community members.
Proponent Name(s)	Save the Children Indonesia and Cargill
Proponent Type	International Organizations and Civil Society Organizations
Primary Contact Name	Muhammad Zamroni - WASH Specialist
Primary Contact Details	muhammad.zamroni@savethechildren.org
Additional Contact Details	muh.zamroni@gmail.com
Region	Asia Pacific

Section 2: Commitment
Linkages to SDG 6	Safe and Affordable Drinking Water, End Open Defecation and Provide Access to Sanitation and Hygiene, Improve Water Quality, Wastewater Treatment and Safe Reuse, Support Local Engagement in Water and Sanitation Management
Target	Local community and children in Kalimantan
Linkages to other SDG	Good Health And Well-Being, Gender Equality

Section 3: Actions and Outcomes to Achieve Targets
Relevant Sub-Theme	Water Security and Prosperity, Water for Humans and Nature, Disaster Risk Reduction and Management
Actions and Outcomes	The WASH integrated interventions will ensure the Youth group and that vulnerable supported communities in Ketapang District of West Kalimantan province are aware of the key and public health risks associated with open defecation practices, COVID-19 transmission and lack of safe water, sanitation, and hygiene practices. The approach will be empowering the youth and woman group to increase the participatory and mobilize the communities to adopt individual, household, and community measures to reduce the public health risks and improve the access to safe water and safe sanitation. Moreover, using Community Led Total Sanitation (CLTS) approach and combining with Sanitasi Total Berbasis Masyarakat (STBM) or Community based Total Sanitation strategy focus on provision of key health and hygiene promotion messaging at community level through risk adverse measures defined for prevention of water borne disease

Implementation Period	Start Period	6/1/2021
	End Period	5/1/2024
Financial Commitment	500,000 USD (for 3 thematic - Livelihood, Youth and WASH)	